THE YELLOW HOUSE

NEAR PALMA, MALLORCA, SPAIN

This tiny hideaway, a one-room, ochre-hued garden house, lies in the pretty Mallorcan hinterland 5km from Palma. Inside, the villa is eclectically stylish, with antique pieces creating atmosphere and cosiness. With nothing but wandering goats and gnarled olive groves around, you'll have plenty of time to dip into the pool. Yet the island's beaches are within striking distance, just 20 minutes away.

MONTE VELHO NATURE RESORT

CARRAPATEIRA, PORTUGAL

Wild, windswept and utterly idyllic, Monte Velho has it all. Set in a national park on the Atlantic coast, it's a natural haven in 50ha of farmland. The rustic but comfortable lodging comprises 13 airy, colourful rooms and suites. There are no TVs or phones and solar and wind power are used. There's no pool either, but the surf is a walk through the hills. So come to hike, swim and ride the waves.
